MAGISTRATES INDEMNITY, IRELAND:

(BILL OF LAST SESSION.)

LORDS AMENDMENTS to Magistrates Indemnity BILL.

Ordered, by The House of Commons, to be Printed, 7 June 1825.

Martis, 22° die Junii, 1824.

THE House proceeded to take into consideration the Amendments made by the Lords to the Bill, intituled, An Act to indemnify certain Magistrates for proceedings against persons using unlawful weights in Ireland: And the said Amendments were read, and are as followeth;

Pr. 4. l. 33. After "Weights" insert "or for or concerning the trying, condemning, seizing, taking, carrying away, or detaining of any weights of any "merchant, dealer or chapman, for not being just weights or not being equal "to the said Standard Weights, or for the taking and seizing of any fraudulent "beam and scales."

Pr. 4. l. penult. Leave out from "Issue" to "and" in Press 5, line 1, and insert, "or in Replevin to avow generally that he the defendant did take the goods "and chattels in question, as chief magistrate, clerk of the market or other "officer, as the case may be, because the said weights were not just and true "weights, or that the said beam and scales were not a just beam and scales; "and shall give his right and authority so to try, condemn, seize and take away "the said goods and chattels, and other the special matter and this Act in "evidence, without pleading the same."

The said Amendments being read a second time, were agreed to by the House.

Ordered, That Mr. Brogden do carry the Bill to the Lords; and acquaint them, that this House hath agreed to the Amendments made by their Lordships.
